

Tasting Notes

There is an elegance and power to this wine that we've not seen before in our estate grown wine from Chehalem Mountains AVA. The blend is predominantly from our field selection of clone 777. The clusters were the tiniest we've seen and the wine concentrated as expected from these tiny things. What is glorious is how this wine has aged in the barrel into such a balanced, nuanced wine.