

Tasting Notes

This is a “leopard” of a Chardonnay; quiet, lythe, yet powerful. The aroma is Old World, ripe Anjou pear that shifts to white peach, then back again, with a lovely, gentle toasted oak spice. The flavor has a powerful amount of ripe fruit and mouth feel, yet has a balanced, bracing mineral core that lends the wine a real zing. The flavors sail on and on.

This is the Chardonnay I’ve been looking to make for the last 25 years!
