
2012 Marsh Estate Pinot Noir

Tasting Notes by Winemaker, Rollin Soles

Dark cherry in color. Seductive Trade Route spices, fresh black cherry, and home canned plum with a tiny whiff of vanilla, toasted almonds, and sweet cooked apple. Robust blast of deep black cherry fruit in the center palate. Rounds out with lovely silky tannins and long, bold, sweet flavors. Ripe plum with a deliciously creamy finish and a hint of chocolate-mint. This wine delivers on its promise of silky opulence from the beginning to end.
