“The second release of this tête de cuvée offering from Roco is two thirds Pinot Noir and one third Chardonnay, and winemaker Rollin Soles (Argyle) seems to have saved his best for it. Matching intense fruit to classic Champagne-style finesse, it’s brightly layered with apple, pear and Mandarin orange flavors. It has a fine bead and finishes clean, with citrus and toast highlights.”

“Sleek and lovely, with delicately expression of Asian pear, brioche and roasted nut flavors that glide on the long, crisp and vibrant finish. Drink now. 773 cases.”

“This blend of 67% Pinot Noir with the rest Chardonnay begins with aromas of nicely toasted brioche, lemon rind and vanilla cream. The palate is refreshing yet rich, with a wonderful mousse. Lemon curd, kumquat, starfruit and rich cream flavors marvelously combine. The cream-driven finish is long and completes this gorgeous wine.
