James Suckling

“This beautiful pinot noir shows cherries, plums and violets. Earth character and orange skins, too. I like the complexity of the nose here. Medium to full body, firm tannins and a crisp finish. Drink now or hold.”

- James Suckling, 12/17

“Deep brilliant red. A highly perfumed and complex bouquet evokes ripe raspberry and cherry liqueur, cocoa powder, incense, Indian spice and smoky minerals. Sweet, seamless and broad as well as clarity and lift to the intense red and dark berry, spice cake and rose pastille flavors. Close round, sappy impressively long, featuring resonating florality and fine-grained tannins that come in slowly to add shape and subtle grip.”

Wine Enthusiast

“The best Private Stash to date, this pumps up its strawberry and raspberry jam flavors with apricot highlights. It’s concentrated and boldly fruity but balanced and long, buttressed with well-matched acids and tannins.”

- Paul Gregutt, 11/17
