2017 PRIVATE STASH PINOT NOIR

“This is the 15th edition of this limited edition wine made by legendary Oregon producer Rollin Soles. The nose is exceedingly good ranging from black truffle shavings and peat moss to wild blackberry and suggestions of red currant jelly that all mingle together on the nose. The palate has a seamless quality that effortlessly glides, reveling a range of red fruit flavors alongside bright minerals, orange zest and damp earthy tones. While this is seriously good now, the ‘Private Stash No. 15’ will cellar well over the next ten to fifteen years.”
